

LGD Declaration for Diversity and Inclusion

- LG Display strives to build a culture that enables employees with a wide range of backgrounds and experiences to reach their full potential.
- LG Display fully respects the value of diversity beyond legal compliance such as anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies.

Prejudice

- We respect different experiences and thoughts of employees with a wide range of backgrounds.
- We respect differences without unconscious biases.
- We establish a strong two-way communication to achieve a mutual understanding and empathy.

Equality

- We provide equal opportunities for women and people with disabilities to demonstrate their abilities in a variety of jobs.
- We support a better work-life balance for all employees, including pregnancy, childbirth, childcare, and family.
- We do not express negative feeling towards minorities, and ensure fair performance evaluation and treatment.

Bullying

- We do not engage in bullying and harassing behavior such as intimidating or demeaning behaviors, abusive language, bullying, and coercion.
- We do not impose unnecessary hierarchies based on position or age.
- We respect the individuality of all employees and do not interfere in their lives unnecessarily.

Belongingness

- We use gender-inclusive language to support and better unite all employees.
- We promote communication based on mutual respect and openness regardless of gender, age, position, etc..
- We share information with each other and actively participate in decision-making processes.
